THE YEAR BOOK OF THE STUDENTS OF ST. MARY'S SCHOOL

RALEIGH, NORTH CAROLINA

Saint Mary's School Library

A welcome to friends of the Future and Past!
Farewell to the friends of the present!
Your mem'ry, while love and while friendship shall last,
Shall strengthen and grow the more pleasant.

These pages, perhaps, in the long years ahead,
Many a long, weary hour may cheer
With sweet dreams of the Past—only past, and not dead.
And the days at St. Mary's so dear.

(TUNE: "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms")

St. Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be,
They love thy high praises to sing.
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree
Around which sweet memories cling.
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar, out of sight of thy grove,
But the thought of St. Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved St. Mary's! how great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure,
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through fast rolling years it will grow and endure:
Be a lamp and a guide to their feet.

May the future unite all the good of thy past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teachings—o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom, and love.

WAR-TIME ACTIVITIES

The "Clean-Up Workers"

In the dearth of available labor, and spurred on by "Clean-Up Week," some sixty of the girls volunteered to take charge of special sections of the Grove and keep them in condition. With the workers working in pairs, most of the Grove was covered by the various groups, and the sight of mower, rake, and sickle became a very familiar one.

Twice a week inspections with grades were made, from April to Commencement, and the most efficient groups are to be announced on Class Day.

REV. ALDERT SMEDES, D.D., 1810–1877

Founder (1842) and First Rector (1842–1877) of St. Mary's School

At the time of the death of Dr. Smedes a tribute was paid to his memory by the Bishop in these words: "I take this occasion to express publicly, as my judgment, that Dr. Smedes accomplished more for the advancement of the Church in this Diocese, and for the promotion of the best interests of society within its limits, than any other man who ever lived in it. Under his care, and very much as the result of his intelligence, his firmness, and his tender affection for them, there went out from St. Mary's School, Raleigh, every year a number of young girls who, in culture, in refinement, and still more in elevation of moral and religious character, would compare favorably with the pupils of any other institution in this country. He knew not only how to teach, but how to govern, and to make himself honored as well as loved, and to constrain his pupils to feel that the years spent under his care were at the same time the happiest and most useful of their lives. He has gone to his reward, but his work remains, and will remain from generation to generation."—Haywood's "Bishops of North Carolina," page 193.

"Constant as the Northern Star,
Of whose true, fix'd, and resting quality
There is no fellow in the firmament."

To Miss Katie

To long for truth, to try to realize
The highest that we see—that is the noblest
Living; and that, dear friend, in all these years
Your high sincerity, your love of love,
Your hatred of deceit and scorn of all pretense
Have helped us to desire.

Thinking of you,
We know that love and truth are real;
That God and good are the eternal verities;
Noisy ambition, hard-won fame, the wish
For recognition even of worthy work,
Beside these vital truths fade into nothingness.
To do good, and to distribute of your love
And of your strength to them that need—that
Has been your life. And with such service
God is pleased.

EMILIE W. MCVEA, 1900

MISS KATE MCKIMMON, known affectionately as "Miss Katie" to all St. Mary's girls, is this year in her fifty-first year of devoted service to the School.

Entering as a little girl in 1867, from pupil she became teacher, and has continued her teaching without interruption since, being now in charge of the Primary School.

As "Dormitory Mother" she won the hearts of her girls for many years, and her work for and in the Chapel has been a very special part of her.

Unreconstructed Southerner, but loyal American, whole-hearted in her devotion to School and to Church, St. Mary's would hardly seem St. Mary's without "Miss Katie."

Miss McVea paid tribute to her in the poem published above on her fiftieth birthday.

THE REV. BENNETT SMEDES, D.D.

SECOND RECTOR OF ST. MARY'S SCHOOL, 1877-1897

"I am sure that every girl who has been fortunate enough to count herself a St. Mary's girl during the régime of Dr. Bennett Smedes has felt the same sense of loving protection."

"Strictly the head of his household, he was a companion of infinite tenderness, sympathy, and understanding, a man to lean upon, to look up to, to thank God for."

"This old-time courtesy never left him in the performance of the slightest duty or amenity of life."

"His firmness, his modesty, his mental attainments, his appreciation of the beautiful, and of brilliancy and wit are well known to all who knew him."

The original of the "Stage Coach Picture," so often used in THE MUSE to contrast the old days with later ones, was a drawing by Mrs. Gustave Blessner. Mr. Blessner, Musical Director at St. Mary's in the '40s, had it lithographed for use on the cover of some waltzes which he composed and had published in 1845. On the title page of the music, in addition to the Stage Coach picture, was printed: "The Flowers of the South: A Collection of Characteristic Waltzes, Composed for the Piano, and Dedicated to the Young Ladies of St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C., by Gustave Blessner."

Miss Eleanor Clement

Madame Clement was the first French teacher at St. Mary's, and her little daughter Eleanor accompanied her to St. Mary's and became first a pupil and then a teacher here. Later on she established a very successful girls' school at Germantown (Philadelphia), Pa. At her death she left St. Mary's a $5,000 fund to establish a scholarship in honor of her mother, and also made St. Mary's the residuary legatee of her estate. From this bequest of $35,000 the funds were derived for the building of Clement Hall, which was named in Miss Clement's honor.

Bishop of Mississippi

Third Rector of St. Mary's School, 1899-1903

On the death of Dr. Bennett Smedes in 1899, the Trustees called "Mr. Bratton" to the Rectorship of the School. He had then been serving for some years as Rector of the Church of the Advent at Spartanburg, S. C.

Dr. Bratton has a wonderful personality, and under his Rectorship St. Mary's went forward rapidly. The Rectory, "Senior Hall," and the Piano Practice Rooms were built and the "College Department" established. Dr. Bratton was greatly beloved by both his faculty and "his girls," and all were much distressed when in 1903 he accepted the call to the Bishopric of Mississippi.

He has had an even deeper influence in his diocese and in the Church, and is now one of the powers in the House of Bishops.

The picture above shows him as he looked in the days when he was Rector of St. Mary's.

Mrs. Mary Johnson Iredell

who has given the greater part of a life of usefulness to the work of St. Mary's, as student, as student assistant, as teacher, as traveling representative, as organizer of the Alumnæ, and as President of the Alumnæ Association.

The Alumnæ Chapters meet in their several towns and cities on November 1st, All Saints, which is celebrated as Founders' Day, and on May 12th, the date of the first opening of St. Mary's, which is observed as Alumnæ Day.

The most important special work accomplished by the Alumnæ Association has been the establishment of the Smedes Memorial Scholarship, to the memory of the founder and his son, the second rector of St. Mary's; the rebuilding of the Chapel, and the establishment of the Mary Iredell Fund and the Kate McKimmon Fund.

Hail! St. Mary's

In a grove of stately oak trees,
Where the sunlight lies,
Stands St. Mary's, true and noble,
'Neath the southern skies.

Far and wide, oh! sound her praises,
Chorus full and free.
Hail, St. Mary's, Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee!

Well we love the little chapel,
Ever hold it dear;
Hear the echoes of the music
Rising soft and clear.
Far and wide, etc.

There the ivy and the roses
Climb the old stone wall;
There the sweet, enticing bird-notes
Sound their magic call.
Far and wide, etc.

And the bonds of friendship strengthen
As her beauties charm;
We draw close to Alma Mater,
Trust her guiding arm.
Far and wide, etc.

The Class Poem

There's a long, long road behind us
Through our school-days now gone,
And the road which lies before us
Ever beckons us on.
We have worked and we have waited
For this day which is ours,
Through cloudy days and sunshine,
The happiest of hours.

'Tis a long farewell we're bidding
To our joyous school-days,
For we have reached the forking,
The parting of the ways.
There's a long, long way before us,
And 'tis onward we go,
With heavy hearts at parting,
But hopes all aglow.

Down this way which we are starting
There's a future unknown;
We are leaving all the old things,
Old purposes have flown.
In the future that we're facing,
Alma Mater, to you
We'll owe great truths and ideals
To e'er keep us true.

A. E. H.

Class Prophecy, 1918

There was once at dear St. Mary's,
In the year nineteen-eighteen,
A Senior Class unparalleled,
Whose like was never seen.

'Tis sure they will not soon forget
That sad yet happy date
When one and all they ventured forth
Each one to learn her fate.

Of course, there have been changes and
Surprises quite a few,
For some of them you'd hardly know,
But just the same it's true.

"K. DRANE" into an office went,
But not long did she stay,
For now she is her boss's boss,
And has his name, they say.

"RAVIE," though always popular
As any one could be,
Has now given up her friends
To enter a nunnery.

K. HUGHES, the baby of us all,
Her lot in society cast:
She wears French heels five inches high,
And has grown up at last.

She had so many lovers that
She never could decide;
So AGNES is a spinster now,
Whose black cat is her pride.

A great playwright is ALINE HUGHES,
And famous, too, is she;
She still is just as talented
As we all said she'd be.

H. MASON lost her dignity
And went upon the stage.
She does the newest dances, and
Is really quite the rage.

HENRIETTA got excited once,
Although 'tis strange to tell;
She spoke above a whisper, and
Has since been known to yell.

But as a country school-marm
G. PLEASANTS takes the cake,
Though, as teacher just as pupil,
She cannot keep awake.

Then there was studious BESSIE FOLK,
Married when only twenty.
As an adoring farmer's wife
She lives in peace and plenty.

MAUD MILLER still is interested
In everything that's going;
And now that woman's day has come—
She spends her time a-beauing.

NOVELLA is an admiral's wife,
And proud of her husband is she!
She charms him with her flute-like voice
And he listens rapturously.

And as for HELEN LAUGHINGHOUSE,
She tried to be a poet,
But so far she's had poor success—
As if this didn't show it.

The Inter-Society Debate

SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1918, 8 P. M.

Resolved, That immigration into the United States should be restricted by a literacy test.

Affirmative—Sigma Lambda:
ALINE HUGHES, '18, and LUCY LONDON ANDERSON, '20.

Negative—Epsilon Alpha Pi:
ELLEN BOOTH LAY, '19, and MILLICENT BLANTON, '21.

Judges: DEAN THOMAS P. HARRISON and PROF. W. A. WITHERS of State College; SUPT. FRANK M. HARPER of the Raleigh Schools.

The judges decided the debate unanimously in favor of the affirmative.

The annual Inter-Society Debates were inaugurated in 1902, and were held each year up to and including 1913. In those twelve years the Sigma Lambda debaters were victorious eight times and the Epsilon Alpha Pi debaters four times. The Alpha Rho Society was organized in 1912, and in 1914, 1915, and 1917 there was a series of three debates, each society debating the other two. In 1914 Alpha Rho won both debates and Epsilon Alpha Pi defeated Sigma Lambda. In 1915 Epsilon Alpha Pi won both debates and Sigma Lambda defeated Alpha Rho. In 1917 each society won and lost. In 1916 the debates gave way to the Shakespearean Contest, in which Sigma Lambda was pronounced the winner.

Including all seventeen years, Sigma Lambda has won nine times from Epsilon Alpha Pi, and Epsilon Alpha Pi has won seven times from Sigma Lambda.

The Literary Society Activities

The Literary Societies have been leading organizations at St. Mary's since their establishment. Named after the leading southern poets—Edgar Allan Poe and Sidney Lanier—they hold weekly meetings, with special Inter-Society Meetings to celebrate the special holiday occasions—Thanksgiving, Lee's Birthday, Washington's Birthday, etc. For fifteen years they have held annual Inter-Society Debates, and for two years they coöperated with the English Department, under the guidance of Miss Thomas, in an Inter-Society Contest in writing, which included poetry, story, and essay.

This year the Societies are alternately editing the Literary Section of The Muse, furnishing the material for their numbers. Judges will decide which has excelled in this for the year, and the result will be announced on Class Day.

The Societies choose annually the Commencement Marshals, the Chief Marshal being chosen by each in turn.

Saint Mary's School Library

To St. Mary's Chapel

Annie Sutton Cameron, '16

Once more within thy sacred walls
We meet, but not alone.
The hearts of all who hold thee dear
Meet with us here as one.
We feel their silent blessing
Upon us as we pray.
The hopes and prayers that once were theirs
Still live in us today.

For thee they labored, thee they strove:
They loved thee and passed on.
Leaving to us an heritage
Of all that they had won.
A sacred charge they gave us
In trust divine and deep:
Thine honor and thy name they left
For us to guard and keep.

Thou art to us the token
Of that we hold most dear,
Mute bond of love unbroken,
Thy sheltering arms we near.
Thou dost our love enkindle,
Our loyal hearts enroll
In kinship stronger than of blood,
The kinship of the soul.

And through the discord of the world,
Thy music, rising clear.
Dispels the doubt that once we had.
Casts out our craven fear.
Hopes by defeat once shattered
And sullied with the dust,
We pledge again at thy dear name,
In holy love and trust.

Like these who loved and labored,
Led by thy steadfast light,
We pass from thee with strengthened hands
To battle for the right.
And as we strive to follow
The pathway they have trod,
We pray God's peace be ever thine,
Oh, little house of God.

In addition to the usual work of the Chapters in recent years—including the support of the Aldert Smedes Scholarship in Shanghai, China, the support of the Bennett Smedes Scholarship in the Thompson Orphanage, Charlotte, and other charitable work—the Chapters have this year contributed $50 to support a Bible Woman in China, and have provided, in conjunction with the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese, for the sending of four delegates to the Blue Ridge Conference the coming July.

They have also been responsible for the most unique entertainment of the year—the Mission Play, written by Susan Smith and Helen Battle, and presented, under their direction, by the girls of St. Agnes' and St. Monica's Chapters on March 16th.

A Spring Day

Mary T. Yellott, '21

The last pale star fades in the bright'ning sky,
And heaven is overspread with rosy hue.
The moon welcomes her lord with weary sigh,
And earth is bathed in sparkling silver dew.
Now from the neighboring wood is clearly heard
The reveille of many a joyous bird.
—'Tis Dawn.

High in the azure dome of heaven the sun
Casts o'er the breathless world his burning smile:
The very zenith of his path is won—
Idle, without a shadow, rests the dial.
A moment of tense expectation, then
The busy world takes up its task again.
—'Tis Noon.

Deep stillness reigns, and in the glowing west,
All red and golden with reflected light,
The sun sinks slowly to his peaceful rest,
And earth is bowed before the coming night.
Deepens the sky, and now, aloft, afar,
Majestic hangs a single glorious star.
—'Tis Dusk.

Throughout the day, from Dawn till Twilight fell,
'Twas in the air—a something strange and new—
Vague murmurs and faint whisperings that tell
Of sunny days and skies forever blue.
Rejoice! the birds have caroled it all day,
Earth, heaven, sun, moon, and all things living say,
"'Tis Spring!"

Time flies swiftly—oh, so swiftly—
Bears us onward in his flight;
Yesterday, today, tomorrow
Are as nothing in his sight.
All that's left of days now passing
Soon will be but memory,
And we'll think of dear St. Mary's
But in dreamy reverie.
As we turn these yellowed pages
In the future, now and then,
With a sigh we shall remember—
Wishing for these days again!
